Muslim vs Christian Jesus

ISA (Muslim Jesus) in both his nature and actions is far different than the biblical Jesus. Rather than coming to reign as King and Messiah over all the earth from Jerusalem, Jesus instead comes to convert the world to Islam or kill those who refuse to do so. Instead of coming to save and deliver faithful Christians and Jews, he comes instead to kill and slaughter them.

The first thing that Christians need to understand regarding the Islamic belief about Jesus is that Muslims of course reject the idea that Jesus was or is the Son of God. According to Islam, Jesus is not as the Bible articulates, God in the flesh. Secondly, in Islamic belief, Jesus never died on a cross for the sins of mankind. The Quran specifically denies that Jesus was ever crucified or that He ever experienced death.

Muslims deny the resurrection. The death of Jesus Christ and His resurrection are the central tenets of Christianity. Muslim Jesus is not the Jesus of the Gospels who stated that His mission was to die in order to pay for the sins of the all who accept Him as their Lord and so give them everlasting life in His kingdom.
